

Calendar of Events

2026

14 - 16 April, Xi'an, China

Routes Asia 2026 unites decision-makers from the Asia Pacific route development community in Xi'an. Details online.

21 – 23 April, Orlando, FL/USA

MRO Americas is the world's largest aviation maintenance, repair and overhaul event, bringing the global aftermarket together for three days of business, insight and innovation. Details online.

23 – 24 April, Bombay, India

Airport360 Expo brings together India's airport industry to showcase terminal, infrastructure, ground handling and MRO solutions on one focused platform. Building on its successful first edition, the event combines an exhibition with a two-day conference on designing and operating airports for India's next phase of aviation growth. Details online.

27 - 28 April, Torino, Italy

The ACI EUROPE Regional Airports Conference & Exhibition (RACE) is the only event in the aviation space dedicated to Europe's regional and smaller airports. Bringing together regional airport leaders, airlines, policy-makers, and solution providers, this event is a hub for dialogue, innovation, and collaboration across Europe's regional aviation ecosystem. Details online.

April 28 - 30, Atlantic City, NJ/USA

ATCA Tech Symposium focuses on the latest developments in aviation technology, including AI, cybersecurity, and operational efficiency. It features industry experts discussing safety protocols and modernization efforts in air traffic management. Attendees can connect with professionals and explore interactive exhibits, fostering collaboration and innovation in the field. Details online.

28 – 30 April, Tampa, FL/USA

The IFMA Airport Council Spring Conference 2026 is a professional industry event focused on facilities management, operations and asset performance at airports. Organised by the IFMA Airport Council, the conference brings together airport facility managers, operators, engineers, consultants and suppliers to share best practice and practical solutions for managing complex airport environments. Details online.

3 – 5 May, Los Angeles, CA/USA

The 98th Annual AAAE Conference and Exhibition brings together airport leaders, executives, technical specialists and industry partners to share education on regulatory changes and operational best practice, explore innovations in airport technology and services, earn continuing education units, and build professional networks. Details online.

6 May, Webinar

The Airside Innovation Summit is a global digital event bringing together airport leaders, airlines, ANSPs, regulators, and technology experts to explore how airside operations are evolving — from reactive processes to predictive, connected, and actionable ecosystems. More details here.

12 – 13 May, Atlanta, GA/USA

The Airport Construction Strategy Summit provides airport construction professionals, capital program managers, and risk managers with practical and actionable information regarding how to improve capital project delivery and manage construction and project delivery risks. The program will feature many airports that have recently or are currently managing large capital improvement programs. Details online.

12 – 14 May, Bangkok, Thailand

The ACI Asia-Pacific & Middle East Regional Assembly, Conference & Exhibition (RACE) is a major regional airport industry gathering bringing together airport operators and aviation stakeholders from across Asia-Pacific and the Middle East. The 2026 edition is themed “Airports as Engines of Shared Prosperity”, highlighting the role of airports in driving social and economic growth, connectivity and inclusiveness across the two regions, and will be held in Bangkok. Details online.

13 - 14 May, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

MRO Southeast ASIA is the region’s must-attend event for information exchange and knowledge sharing within the Maintenance, Repair, and Overhaul (MRO) sector. Details online.

18 – 20 May, Rimini, Italy

Routes Europe 2026 will unite senior decision-makers from airlines, airports, destinations and aviation stakeholders to redefine the future of European air connectivity. Details online.

18 – 21 May, Coronado, CA/USA

ACI-NA’s 2026 Legal Affairs Conference will be bringing together airport legal professionals and consultants to identify and discuss the most pressing legal developments and issues associated with the industry. The event will include discussion panels, networking opportunities, and presentations from industry leaders. Details online.

19 - 21 May, Cairo, Egypt

The IATA Ground Handling Conference (IGHC) is the premier annual ground handling conference in the world. It brings together industry leaders from airlines, airports, ground service providers, and manufacturers, to discuss and implement industry standards, policies, and procedures. Details online.

26 - 28 May , Lisbon, Portugal

Airspace World 2026 is the leading global gathering for the entire airspace community. From advancing digitalisation and sustainability to integrating drones and new air mobility, it is where the industry connects, collaborates, and shapes the future of global airspace. Details online.

27 - 28 May, Charleston, SC/USA

GAD Americas is the leading conference for airport strategy and finance. Details online.

3 - 4 June 2026, Miami, FL/USA

Aviation Festival Americas is the premier event uniting top leaders in the commercial airline and airport industry across the USA, Canada, and Latin America. The event brings together 1,500+ airline and airport professionals to explore new strategies, cutting-edge technologies, and build valuable commercial relationships. Details online.

8 – 10 June, Chicago, IL/USA

ACI-NA's JumpStart® Air Service Development Conference is North America's premier air service development conference. Details online.

22 – 24 June, Salt Lake City, UT/USA

ACI-NA's Business of Airports Conference is the industry's forum to help airports and stakeholders better understand the evolving airport business model, including concessions management, financial management, workforce planning, supplier diversity and management, and new trends in aeronautical and non-aeronautical revenue. Details online.

22 - 24 June, Prague, Czechia

ACI EUROPE Annual Congress & General Assembly 2025 is ACI EUROPE's flagship event to gain insights into the latest aviation developments and network with top leaders from the European airport industry. Details online.

29 June - 1 July, Geneva, Switzerland

The sixth TR Consumer Forum, organised by TRBusiness and consumer research company m1nd-set and hosted by the International Air Transport Association, will bring together industry participants to examine air traffic trends and traveller purchasing behaviour through data-focused discussions, keynote sessions and panel debates. Details online.

31 August – 4 September, Istanbul, Türkiye

The ACI World Airport Experience Summit is the premier global event dedicated to airport experience. The event brings together executives and experts from around the world to share insights, strategies, and solutions that shape the customer and employee experience. Details online.

14 – 17 September, Philadelphia, PA/USA

2026 ACI-NA Annual Conference and Exhibition is the world's largest 'for airports, by airports' event presents an opportunity to stay ahead of emerging trends, see the latest industry solutions, and connect with friends and colleagues. Details online

15 – 17 September, Lisbon, Portugal

GSE Expo Europe is the leading ground support equipment showcase in the region, hosted in Lisbon. Designed by the industry for the industry, the event combines indoor exhibits with large-scale outdoor demonstrations, providing an unrivaled platform for innovation, sustainability, and collaboration across the European and international GSE community. Details online.

23 – 24 September, Singapore

Passenger Terminal Expo Asia (PTE Asia) is a new regional airport conference and exhibition created to support the rapid growth of the airport and passenger terminal sector across Asia. Developed by the organisers of Passenger Terminal Expo, the two-day event brings together airport operators, suppliers and industry specialists for a high-level conference programme and a large-scale exhibition. Details online.

25 – 29 September, Lima, Peru

ACI-LAC & ACI World Annual General Assembly, Conference, and Exhibition 2026 brings together senior executives of the airport industry from all over the world and features discussion topics that shape the rapid evolution of the aviation industry. Details online.

1 - 2 October 2026, Hokkaido, Japan

GAD Asia will bring together industry leaders, investors, and key stakeholders to explore the future of airport development and investment across Asia. For more details online.

5 – 8 October, Arlington, VA/USA

The ACI-NA PS&S/ACC Security Technology Conference brings together airport professionals and government officials from the TSA, CBP, DHS, and other agencies to discuss current safety and security developments affecting U.S. and Canadian airports. Details online.

12 - 14 October, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

The 25th edition of the Airport Show will bring together 140 exhibitors from over 20 countries to showcase new technologies for smarter, safer, and more sustainable airports. The event comes amid USD 240 billion in planned airport development across Asia-Pacific and the Middle East, where passenger traffic is projected to reach 530 million by 2043. Details online.

13 – 14 October, Abu Dhabi, UAE

Airspace Africa and Middle East is a new regional airspace and air traffic management conference bringing together leaders from Africa, the Middle East and Euro-Asia to advance practical ATM innovation and collaboration. Hosted by CANSO and inspired by the Airspace World format, the two-day event focuses on translating regional strategies into operational outcomes through expert sessions, technology showcases and structured collaboration between regulators, ANSPs, industry suppliers and innovators. Details online.

13 – 15 October, Lisbon, Portugal

The World Aviation Festival is a leading global aviation technology conference and exhibition bringing together airlines, airports and senior industry executives shaping the future of aviation. Returning to Lisbon in 2026, the three-day event will host more than 4,500 attendees and 600 speakers, focusing on innovation, digital strategy, software, services, marketing and distribution across the aviation sector. Details online.

18 – 20 October Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Routes World is a key forum for airline network planners, airports and tourism authorities to negotiate current and future air services. The 2026 edition in Riyadh will gather senior route-development decision makers for pre-scheduled one-to-one meetings, conference sessions on demand trends and traffic forecasts, and networking events focused on building and reshaping global route networks. Details online.

19 – 21 October, Seattle, WA/USA

The 2026 ACI-NA Marketing & Communications Conference will gather airport marketing, communications, and customer experience professionals to address emerging challenges, share solutions, and network across all areas of airport operations.

27 – 29 October, Amsterdam, the Netherlands

MRO Europe is the largest event of its kind in the region and is a unique opportunity to connect with the entire aviation aftermarket. The two-day exhibition features over 500 exhibitors from around the world, representing all levels of the airline supply chain. Details online.

23 - 25 November, Barcelona, Spain

Airports Innovate is a must-attend event for anyone looking to stay at the forefront of innovation and be part of shaping the aviation ecosystem. Details online.

2 – 4 December, Washington, D.C./USA

The 2026 ACI-NA/ACC Airport Planning & NEPA Workshop will bring together airport planning and environmental professionals to discuss integrating planning, environmental review, and permitting to achieve effective, implementable airport projects.

9 - 10 December, Milan, Italy

GAD (Global Airport Development) World is a unique event dedicated to sustainable airport business growth and infrastructure development through best practice financing, management and strategy. The forum brings together stakeholders from all sides of the airport business from public and private airport operators, financial and strategic investors, regulators and industry experts from around the world. Details online.

2027

17 – 18 March, Milan, Italy

The Trinity Forum 2027, organised by The Moodie Davitt Report in partnership with Airports Council International (ACI) World, ACI Europe and ACI Asia-Pacific & Middle East, will be hosted by SEA Milan Airports. The 2027 edition will mark the first time the event is hosted in Europe and will include discussions on commercial expansion, including planned retail developments at Milan Malpensa Airport Terminal 1.

6 – 8 April, Amsterdam, the Netherlands

PTE World (Passenger Terminal Expo) provides the most significant opportunity for airports and airlines to debate current issues and form business relationships on a global scale, with 10,000+ people from at least 120 countries attending each year. Details online.

19 – 21 October, New Orleans, LA/USA

The International GSE Expo provides interactive opportunities to see first-hand the products, equipment and technologies impacting the ground support equipment market today. Details online.

Do you organize events targeted at airport industry professionals on a national or international level? Send us the details in a format as seen in this Calendar of Events section and we will include your event. Event listings with logos represent Media Partner status of Momberger Airport Information at such events.